

The Denver Art Museum’s Gio Ponti-designed Lanny and Sharon Martin Building and new Anna and John J. Sie Welcome Center are architectural gems located in the heart of the Golden Triangle Creative District. Both sites will soon be available to host a variety of events upon completion of phase one of the North Building renovation project. From large corporate reception dinners to non-profit galas, private dining options, meetings and every special event in-between, the following spaces will be available starting summer 2020, along with access to reopened gallery spaces.*

Event Spaces

With a variety of unique spaces to provide an artful backdrop for your event, any of the following spaces can be booked for important business, social and non-profit events.

	Seated	Standing
Sturm Grand Pavilion	650	1,000
Garden Room (with Terrace)	50	75
Creative Hub (with Terrace)	N/A	150
Kemper Courtyard	N/A	150
Sculpture Garden	N/A	100

Galleries

Enhance your event reservation with art viewing experiences and docent-led tours. Galleries available for booking starting the summer of 2020 include the following:

- Bonfils-Stanton Gallery, Level 1
- Amanda J. Precourt Design Gallery, Level 2
- Northwest Coast Gallery, Level 2

Catering

A full suite of onsite catering options will be available for a variety of occasions.

Audio / Visual

Additional audio and visual components can be added to almost any event, including installed sound, video projection, digital displays, video streaming, lighting, wireless presentations and TV monitors.

Contact

Contact the Denver Art Museum to start planning your artful experience today by emailing eventinfo@denverartmuseum.org, calling 720-913-0148 or submitting an event request form online.

*Please note the Hamilton Building is available to host events. For details, click here or visit our website under “Event Rental.”