Shopping and Dining at the Denver Art Museum

Several dining and shopping options are available at and near the Denver Art Museum (DAM) complex. The Museum Shop in the Hamilton Building offers visitors an array of new items from which to choose, including a number of collection-related gifts and products. Visitors' dining choices include a variety of espresso drinks, packaged salads, sandwiches and pastries at the museum's Callahan Café or salads, paninis, soups and a special kids' menu at Mad Greens Inspired Eats.

Shopping Options

The 5,600-square-foot Museum Shop in the Hamilton Building emphasizes high design and feature an extensive array of custom products inspired by art from the museum's world-class collection, temporary exhibitions and Libeskind's innovative architecture. The Museum Shop features high-end design details including a fully-lit LED wall for larger vases and art objects, a kids' corner, a book nook, an area for art and design-focused periodicals, original glass art and an expanded jewelry display that includes a selection of unique pieces from local and national designers.

Museum Shop Hours

Monday–Thursday, Saturday & Sunday	10 a.m.–5 p.m.
Friday	10 a.m.–8 p.m.

Callahan Café

At the Celeste and Dick Callahan Café (located in The Shop on level 1 of the Hamilton Building), visitors can grab a cup of Starbucks™ Coffee or choose from a selection of salads, wraps and baked goods. Several café tables are available in The Shop and there are two outdoor patio spaces to enjoy on sunny days.

Café Hours

Mad Greens Inspired Eats

Mad Greens is located across from the Hamilton Building on the first floor of the Museum Residences Building that wraps the Cultural Center Parking Garage. This family-friendly alternative features Mad-designed salads, build-your-own-salads, panini, soups, assorted desserts and a special kids' menu (with such favorites as mac and cheese, PB&J and grilled cheese). Diners can select their lettuce, ingredients ranging from apples to water chestnuts, add-ins such as citrus chicken, tofu or smoked salmon and dressing to create their perfect salad. A coffee bar featuring fine coffee, tea, fresh-squeezed juices and pastries is also available. For more information, visit www.madgreens.com or call 720-496-4158.

Mad Greens Hours:

Monday–Thursday, Saturday & Sunday	10:30 a.m.–6 p.m.
Friday	10 a.m.–8 p.m.
